CZECHS AND NAZIS CAUTIONED

PARENTS WAVER OVER QUESTION, LIFE OR DEATH

No Known Cure For Disease, Glioma
of Retina

BABY IS VICTIM

Chicago, May 7.—(UP)—The distraught parents of five-week-old Helaine Judith Colan, who is suffering from a cancerous growth of both eyes, were told by a brain specialist that if anything is to be done for their baby it must be done today.

At the same time, Dr. Herman Colan, a dentist, said he and his 23-year-old wife, Estelle, had not yet decided whether to consent to an operation which medical men said would doom the child to a lifetime of blindness or to let the baby die.

Dr. Morris L. Herschman, the baby's paternal grandfather, had announced last night the parents decided to "let nature take its course."

"I have authorized no one to speak for me," Dr. Colan said. "When a decision is made I will announce it."

Helaine is suffering from glioma of the retina, a malignant growth that attacks the sight-giving tissues and courses to the brain.

Two Courses of Action
Dr. Cassius B. Rogers, brain specialist at the Garfield Park community hospital where Helaine is confined, said he advised the parents of two courses of action that could be followed.

She could be submitted to super-tense X-ray treatments which might save not only the child's life but the sight of her right eye, or an operation could be performed.

If the parents decide upon an operation, Dr. Rogers said, the baby's left eye would be removed and the optic nerve placed under a microscope to determine if the growth has moved down the optic nerve to the right eye. If it has not, he said, sight of the right eye might still be saved. If, however, the growth has spread, the right eye also should be removed to check the progress of the tumors to the brain.

Earlier, the hospital had offered to take over the care of the baby, which would relieve the parents of the responsibility of choosing between death or blindness for their child.

Parents Distraught
Helaine's parents and grandparents were at her bedside.

"Dr. and Mrs. Colan are very distraught," Dr. Rogers said. "They're practically crazy."

If the parents agree to X-ray treatments, Helaine would be taken to Mercy hospital where the largest X-ray machine in the world is maintained, Dr. Rogers said. He said a few cases of glioma had been treated with some success by that process.

The distraught parents had sought from science and religion an answer to their problem. They consulted Rabbi A. E. Abramowitz, who told them that unless an operation offered not only a chance of life but of "absolute normalcy" they should rest their case with God.

Dr. E. V. L. Brown, specialist at the Albert Merritt Billings Memorial hospital, urged the parents to consent to an operation as the only means to prevent the tumor from spreading to the brain.

Urges Removal of Eye
Dr. Good advised them to permit removal of the left eye so that examination might be made of the tumor. If the operation showed the optic nerve was not involved and that the disease was not spreading to the brain, he said he would suggest removal of the right eye.

Bradley Factory Employees in Tribute to J. C. Bohmker

All of the 500 employees of the David Bradley Manufacturing works gathered in the factory cafeteria last evening to express their good wishes, confidence and loyalty to J. C. Bohmker, plant manager, on the occasion of his 25th anniversary.

The party was arranged entirely by the workers and was a surprise to Mr. Bohmker. Several employees made talks, including Fred Gorman, co-ordinator, Peter Henneberger and George Huffman.

They noted the mutual friendliness between employer and employees, paid tribute to Mr. Bohmker's outstanding work and his efforts to keep the plant operating during the depression.

JAPANESE FACE ANNIHILATION NEAR YANGTZE

Nantungchow Garrison Supply Base Threatened

Shanghai, May 7.—(AP)—Three thousand Chinese guerrilla troops, fighting recklessly in the streets of Nantungchow, threatened today to annihilate the Japanese garrison of that supply base on the north bank of the Yangtze river, 60 miles north of Shanghai.

Japanese reinforcements were rushed from Shanghai in a desperate effort to save the beleaguered garrison and retain possession of the important base town.

The loss of Nantungchow would cut supply and communication lines serving a Japanese army of 10,000 men operating in North Kiangsu province.

Foreigners arriving from Yangtze ports said scores of Chinese civilians already had been killed and hundreds were hiding in terror while hand-to-hand fighting raged inside the walls of Nantungchow.

Traffic Paralyzed
Port traffic at Shanghai was paralyzed this morning when the Chinese customs staff temporarily ceased clearing ships after the reformist Chinese government, set up by the Japanese at Nanking, announced it was taking charge of the customs.

The situation was relieved, however, when Commissioner L. H. Lawford, speaking at a mass meeting, declared he was taking orders from the inspectorate general, not from the reformist government. The customs staff then resumed work.

While the Chinese and Japanese battled each other ineffectively in south Shantung, Chinese reported victories in Shansi province. They said they recaptured four cities and Tungyangkwan—the rising sun gateway through the T'aihan mountains from Honan into Shansi province.

PATENT ISSUED

A patent has just been granted to Arthur Lee, 796 South Myrtle avenue, Kankakee, for an improved grease gun filler, according to reports from Washington.

SENATE LOBBY COMMITTEE IS HIT BY GLENN

Waging Campaign of Terrorism Against the Press
INTIMIDATION

By ALLEN C. DIBBLE

Washington, May 7.—(UP)—Dr. Glenn Frank, chairman of the Republican program committee and former president of the University of Wisconsin, accused the senate lobby committee today of waging a "campaign of terror and intimidation" against the press.

He assailed the group headed by Sen. Sherman Minton, D. Ind., as a "snooping committee" which, he said, was "actuated obviously by political and partisan motives." He charged that Minton had used his authority "to harass and intimidate" any newspaper or magazine that had criticized the New Deal.

Frank's statement was made after the lobby committee had refused him permission to testify at an investigation of the magazine, Rural Progress, of which he is editor. Minton and Sen. Lewis B. Schwellenbach, D. Wash., contended that they would not afford Frank an opportunity "to use this hearing as a forum for the Republican party."

Campaign of Terror
Frank had not been subpoenaed by the committee, but accompanied M. V. Reynolds, vice-president and chairman of the board of the magazine's management. Who was questioned about the publication's alleged lobby activities and its financial support.

In his formal statement Frank said that the hearing was "a part of a carefully laid campaign of terror and intimidation against the newspapers and magazines of this country which dare to criticize, or even to discuss objectively, the policies and activities of the New Deal."

"The American people had better awaken," he said, "for as the supreme court said two years ago, 'A free press stands as one of the great interpreters between the government and the people,' adding: 'To allow to be fettered is to fetter ourselves.'"

"We have nothing whatever to hide. The books of the company were spread before the committee. I voluntarily came to Washington in order to be available to supply the committee with all facts about the magazine."

"I volunteered information at the hearing which would have given a clear picture of the subject under inquiry. But I was ruled out of order."

"Smear Campaign"
"It is difficult to resist the conclusion that the Minton committee is primarily interested in a smear campaign against any publication that dares to be independent of official propaganda."

Minton, commenting on Frank's statement, said that the committee

Pens Suicide Note Then Takes Poison

New York, May 7.—(AP)—Police sought identification today of a pretty young brunette who swallowed fatal poison in a midtown bus terminal last night after penning a suicide note signed "The Little Girl in Grey."

The message, addressed "To whom this may concern," told of running away from home with a boy at the age of 14 and her subsequent downfall.

"Please, when I die, print this in the paper so I may help some other poor girl," it said, in part.

"If it helps a girl who has even the first thought of leaving home, then I have not done this in vain."

"There is hardly a state in the east I have not been in, and I am known and recognized as a woman with a bad reputation, who would take your money and cut your throat without a moment's hesitation."

"I am broke, hungry (I haven't had a meal in three days), no place to sleep; so I took my last money to buy this paper and poison."

"I am leaving no one or address. Just when I'm buried (I don't really care whether I am or not) I want you not to pity nor to scorn, but to help."

Young Slayer Gets Another Month to Live

Norristown, Pa., May 7.—(AP)—Wendell Forrest Bowers, who but a few months ago calmly related to a crowded courtroom how he killed one woman and cruelly bludgeoned another, accepted with stoic indifference today the news that Governor George H. Earle had given him another month to live.

Bowers, 20-year-old former reformatory inmate, had been scheduled to die Sunday night in the electric chair at Rockview penitentiary for slaying Mrs. Wilma V. Carpenter, comely 37-year-old widow, in her suburban Camp Hill home last December.

Yesterday, Governor Earle, acting on recommendation of the pardon board, stayed his execution until June 13.

When called to trial, Bowers told how he broke into Mrs. Carpenter's home while she was away, drank liquor and read "thrill" magazines, and when Mrs. Carpenter and a companion, Mary Griffin, 22, returned, shot the widow and attempted to attack the girl.

Makes Strong Plea for Companionship With Great Powers

Blackpool, England, May 7.—(AP)—Sir Samuel Hoare served notice on dictators today he believed democracies would flourish by the side of the "juggernaut machines," if democratic peoples face facts.

The meticulous home secretary, in a speech to a Rotary International club conference, at the same time declared democracies never could countenance for themselves the anti-semitism of the "German dictator" nor the "Russian dictator's" distinctions between rich and poor.

Without mentioning Italy, he made a strong plea for "good companionship" among nations.

"I believe that the root of British foreign policy is this: This foreign policy in the hands of Prime Minister Chamberlain has effected an Anglo-Italian agreement and is seeking further appeasement at the German end of the Rome-Berlin axis."

Sir Samuel said that "neighborliness" was the first duty of democracy, adding that the "Russian dictator (Stalin) would restrict it to neighbors of his own class, the so-called proletariat" and the "German dictator (Hitler) would confine it to neighbors of his own Aryan race."

"We, with our democratic traditions," Sir Samuel said, "cannot take so restricted a view of our duty... for time out of memory there has been no Jewish question in Britain. Anti-semitism we have refused to countenance..."

Joe Hudson, 47, colored roomer at 941 North Evergreen avenue, who was said to have quarreled with his landlady, Mrs. Jessie B. Wilson, colored, was jailed this morning by Detective Daniel Bergan on an assault and battery complaint.

Hudson failed disparagingly about Mrs. Wilson's daughter and precipitated an argument in which the latter, as struck and a hoe was broken over Hudson's head.

Mothers to Be Honored on Sunday

Tomorrow, the second Sunday in May, will be devoted to mothers throughout the land.

Mother's day is consecrated, by suggestion of former President Woodrow Wilson, to the memory of mothers who are dead and to the thought of mothers who are living.

Mother's day is probably the only holiday not legalized which is universally observed in the United States.

Shortage of Residences Exists Here

"Although the local housing shortage has been relieved somewhat by erection in this community last year of 150 new residences—constituting the largest home building year in Kankakee history—prospective renters are still having difficulty finding suitable residences."

Realtors indicate the vacancies at present are less than 2 per cent, or approximately the same as last year. Some agents have no houses at all to show customers. Rents are holding steady with no changes reported over last spring's rates.

The situation here is partially explained by the fact that two-thirds of the families in the community own their own homes. This is an unusually high percentage, far out ranking many other cities and towns of Illinois.

Last fall a break was thought to be started when several salesmen who make this city their headquarters and rent homes and apartments in the $45 to $55 a month class, moved out of town within a short period.

The houses they formerly rented, however, were quickly taken by an influx of new residents, among whom were the administrative personnel of the new General Foods corporation corn mill.

DANVILLE MAN NOMINATED BY 3RD DIST. GOP

Walter T. Gunn Will Run for State Supreme Court

Decatur, Ill., May 7.—(AP)—An intensive campaign for the special supreme court election June 27 appeared probable today as both Republicans and Democrats prepared to carry the issues before the voters in the 16 counties in the third district.

Even before the Republicans nominated Walter T. Gunn of Danville yesterday to carry their banner, leaders of the convention here charged Governor Horner and his aides with "dictator tactics" over the Democratic gathering at Springfield Tuesday.

D. Logan Giffin of Springfield, head of the large Sangamon county delegation and convention chairman, said:

"There was too much dictating in that convention, but there will be none of that here. The Democratic candidate was handpicked by Linden Smith, the cat-paw of the governor."

Independent Judiciary
Nominating speakers joined in the attack after the convention adopted a resolution calling for an independent judiciary, on the ground "true Americanism demands it."

Gunn was nominated on the third ballot to win over four other candidates. His victory assured when Sangamon's 59 votes started a swing to his standard that finally made the nomination unanimous.

Opposing him were Frank Lemon of Clinton, former United States district attorney at Springfield, Thomas W. Samuels of Decatur, Prof. O. L. McCaskill of Urbana and Rep. Robert H. Allison of Pekin.

Gunn, 58, a practicing attorney for 36 years and once corporation counsel for Danville, will oppose Circuit Judge Joseph L. McLaughlin of Sullivan for the right to fill the vacancy on the high court bench caused by the death of Justice Lott R. Herrick of Farmer City.

Churchill Downs Awaits The Running of Kentucky Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 7.—(AP)—A bright sun, tempered by a cool northeast breeze, smiled on the Downs today and gave evidence that all 10 overnight entries would face the barrier in the 64th Kentucky Derby at approximately 4:30 p. m. central standard time.

The crowd was slow in arriving although the unreserved sections were well-filled an hour and a half before post-time for the first of the nine races (12 noon, central standard time), and some 3,000 spectators sought places of advantage in the newly-terraced infield.

Bands Entertain
Several hundred of the early arrivals in the club house section roamed among the gardens while from the infield bands from the universities of Louisville and Indiana, and several local high schools, entertained.

One of the first fans to put in his appearance was William Woodward, New York owner of the favored Fighting Fox. He expressed confidence in the full brother, Gallant Fox, but predicted one of the best races in recent years.

ROUGH-HOUSE MIGHT CAUSE GENERAL WAR

French-British Diplomacy Linked in Warning

ITALIAN VIEW

By CHARLES S. FOLTZ, JR.
Paris, May 7.—(AP)—French and British diplomats, bound together like their two war machines by last week's talks in London, took action today to treat Europe's war jitters. The first step was instructions to ambassadors of the two countries to deliver notes to Germany and Czechoslovakia, cautioning them against violence in settling the clamor of Nazi Germans in Czechoslovakia for increased political privileges.

The warnings carried the inference that "rough handling" by Germany of the issue of the 3,500,000 German residents in Czechoslovakia almost certainly would cause war.

Sir Neville Henderson, the British ambassador to Berlin, was to see Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering today to convey his government's views to the acting chancellor, in the absence in Italy of Fuhrer Hitler.

The Anglo-French effort was two-pointed, with diplomats hoping first to get Czechoslovakia to do everything possible for its German Nazi minority, and second to make clear to both the concern lest there be violence.

Another chapter of the Anglo-French collaboration, intensified by last week's London conversations between Prime Ministers Chamberlain and Daladier, dealt with further appeasement of Italy.

An effort was under way to smooth the path to recognition of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia by the league of nations council which meets Monday.

Give Hitler Free Hand
Rome, May 7.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini, according to German sources, has agreed to give Germany a free hand in Czechoslovakia, so far as Italy is concerned.

Mussolini was said to have promised, during a conversation last night with Reichsfuhrer Hitler, to bring diplomatic pressure to bear upon the Czechoslovak government to be "reasonable" in meeting German demands.

The German sources said Mussolini agreed that Italy was a disinterested party in Czechoslovakia, and that the Sudeten German problem was one which concerned only the Germans and Czechoslovakia.

Mussolini was reported to have expressed hope Germany would be able to solve the problem "on her own strength." He also was quoted as having expressed the conviction that a solution of the German problem in Czechoslovakia would contribute to the stabilization of European peace.

After the dictators had talked in private for an hour, the German foreign minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, and Italy's Count Galeazzo Ciano, were called in and the conversations continued for another hour.

Four-Power Pact?
Mussolini's pet project—rejuvenation of a four-power pact—was reported to have been the chief topic.

Hitler, according to German sources, indicated willingness to join in Mother's Day!

YOUR MOTHER WOULD WANT YOU TO HONOR HER MEMORY IN CHURCH

God and Mother are the two most sacred words in our language. Every human being has at sometime looked to a mother for guidance, a mother whose love and service have been freely given in the darkest hour or the happiest moment. She was never too weary to heed the slightest wish of those dependent on her. She thought not of herself, but always of her family, for whom she sacrificed time and effort without stint. Mother's smiles and tears hallowed the memories of childhood. To sadden her was a signal for penitence, to make her happy brought high satisfaction. Mother, to the childish mind, was a symbol of God, of Whom she taught and Whose counsel she upheld, as the highest standard of life. Thoughts of Mother often bring memories of the church where she was wont to worship. Your Mother would want you to honor her memory in church. Day centers in the churches of the nation, and there will her memory be most solemnly honored. Most of those who think of her will go to church wearing flowers as a mark of their love and respect. Will you be among them?

"BLUEBEARD'S EIGHTH WIFE" AT PARAMOUNT

Cooper and Colbert Sparkle in Witty Farce Sunday

Although the new Claudette Colbert-Gary Cooper comedy, "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," which comes to the Paramount theater beginning Sunday draws a parallel between a modern man-of-the-world and the legendary ogre of the fairy tale, books, Producer-Director Ernst Lubitsch hastens to assure movie goers that they should not expect too close a resemblance between the ancient wife-killer and the suave actor who plays the modern "Bluebeard" in the Paramount picture.

"As every one who has read the story book knows, the ancient Bluebeard was a medieval nobleman who had seven wives, all of whom he got rid of through murder," says Lubitsch. "Then along came his beautiful eighth wife who turned the tables on him by calling out her private army."

"Gary Cooper, a 'Bluebeard' of our play has seven wives whom he puts out of the way by the modern method of divorce. Miss Colbert, in the role of a lovely young French aristocrat who becomes his eighth spouse, puts him at her mercy by using artillery as effective as that of the resourceful young lady of the legend, even though it is more subtle. She scorns him, browbeats him, makes him jealous of other men and in a thousand little ways makes him realize that, after getting rid of seven wives, he has finally met a woman who can beat him at his own game."

The famous farce of Alfred Savoir, which has been turned into a screen production of "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," is set against the glamorous background of Europe's most famed pleasure spots, continuing the trend toward a sophisticated, continental atmosphere, which has proved so popular during the past season in such pictures as "Champagne Waltz," "Meet Him in Paris" and "Angel." Cooper, in his role of the multi-married multimillionaire, meets his eighth wife and nemesis on the romantic French Riviera, and their subsequent madcap honeymoon takes them to such famed resorts as Venice, the Tyrol, Prague, Vienna, Switzerland and Paris.

LUNA OWL SHOW TONIGHT HAS PRISON THEME

Warden Lewis Lawe's "Over The Wall" Action Packed

"Over The Wall," a gripping melodrama of a man falsely imprisoned for murder and his subsequent rise to fame by means of a beautiful singing voice is the feature attraction at the Luna theater starting with the owl show tonight.

Starring Dick Foran, popular Warner Bros. star recently transferred from westerns, the picture's love element is supplied by June Travis, one of the loveliest leading ladies in Hollywood today.

Written by Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing, the story one which smacks of real life and high drama with plenty of punch provided in the right places.

It is a Warner Bros. presentation. Foran is now finished with western pictures, after making them for two years, and is henceforth to play in straight dramas and comedies without the chaps and spurs.

But Warners are not going to let Dick's splendid singing voice go to waste. Whenever possible he is going to warble. In "Over The Wall" he has three songs by the team of Jerome and Scholl, who wrote the famous "My Little Buckaroo," which swept the country a few months back.

In his current picture he is a member of the prison choir, whose melodies are broadcast over a national hookup weekly. Thus he gains a following of millions of listeners, and through these he is able to win the attention of the governor to some new evidence in his case, dug up by his sweetheart. This frees him, vindicates his name, and sends to punishment the plotters who put him behind the bars.

Previewers of "Over The Wall" declared that splendid performances were given by Foran and Miss Travis, also by John Littel as a prison priest, Ward Bond as head villain, and Veda Ann Borg as his sweetheart.

Spanish Loyalists Suffer Heavy Loss

San Sebastian, Spain, May 7.—(AP)—Spanish insurgents, advancing down the coast toward Castellon de La Plana, inflicted heavy losses on government forces today in a drive that routed them from mountain positions at bayonet point.

Insurgent military reports said the government troops had attempted to infiltrate behind the insurgent lines but were driven back. Heavy rains and wind storms still prevented operations on a large scale.

(Dispatches from Hendaye, France, at the Spanish frontier, however, said insurgent General Miguel Aranda had ordered a general offensive on the zig-zag front from east of Teruel to the Mediterranean north of Castellon "rain or no rain.")

A government battalion was reported destroyed along the coast. The insurgents said the government troops left their trenches filled with dead and a field strewn with wounded.

Snow and rain slowed operations in the Alfabra river valley sector north and east of Teruel. Government artillery shelled the insurgent-held provincial capital, Teruel, dropping projectiles on the already-ruined bank of Spain.

HOLD CHILDREN'S CLINIC

Some two dozen children were examined yesterday in the Steuben school Parent-Teacher association free clinic held at St. Mary hospital. No serious defects were detected, although inoculations against communicable diseases were recommended in several cases. Examinations were conducted by physicians of the city medical society. Clinics for children who will enter other city schools in the fall will be announced later, it was said.

The new Juneau-Fairbanks air-mail service will cover in two days, with flights of 4 1/2 hours one day and four hours the next day, the distance from Juneau to Nome, about 1240 miles, which would require about 80 days by dog team.
